

Timothy M. O'Brien has over 35 years of auditing and accounting experience. After spending five years in public accounting, he went to work for the state of Colorado, serving for three years as the controller/assistant controller for at Fort Logan Mental Health Center and one year with the Colorado Bureau of Investigation before joining the State Auditor's Office. While working in the State Auditor's Office, Mr. O'Brien was a senior auditor for one year, an audit manager for one year, and held the office of Colorado State Auditor for 12 years. He worked for four years as a principal consultant for William M. Mercer Investment Consulting, Inc. He was also the president and chief executive officer of the American Humane Association for four years. Currently, Mr. O'Brien works as an independent consultant.

Mr. O'Brien is a graduate of Loyola University of Chicago with a bachelor's degree and accounting major. He also has a M.B.A. from the University of Colorado. He is a Certified Public Accountant and holds the designation of Chartered Financial Analyst.

Mr. O'Brien and wife Mary live in Denver and are proud of their three daughters (ages 20, 21, and 24).