

Parks and Recreation Advisory Board
Mission Statement
Revised: January 12, 2011

Support the values of sustainability, equity, engagement, and sound economics as detailed in the Denver Parks and Recreation Game Plan.

Provide advice to the Denver Parks and Recreation Department, which encompasses the diverse views of representatives from all Council Districts, the Mayor's Office, the Parks People, registered neighborhood organizations, local non-profits, and the Denver community at-large.

Position Denver's parks and recreation centers in ways that fulfill the present needs of Denver residents while respecting the past and planning for the future.
