

Social Services

The concept includes courtyard buildings to better serve the homeless and mitigate the congregating that occurs in the triangle parks. Larger triangle parks, such as Eddie Maestas, could potentially be redeveloped. An affordable housing strategy for the area that includes a wide range of housing types would contribute to the success of these efforts.