

Learn to BACKYARD COMPOST

SIGN UP FOR A FREE CLASS TODAY

SPONSORED BY
THE CITY & COUNTY OF DENVER AND DENVER URBAN GARDENS

Did you know?

Organic materials such as leaves, branches, grass clippings, and food scraps make up almost 50% of what Denver residents send to the landfill each year.

Instead of trashing these valuable resources, sign up for a FREE hands-on composting class and learn how to turn these materials into compost in your own backyard. Utilizing finished compost around your home and garden provides many benefits to your soil, lawn, plants, and the environment!

WW = Worm Workshop

These classes focus on worm composting techniques.

Registration opens one month prior to each class date, and participants are encouraged to register at least one week in advance of events. All classes are held outdoors at the DENVER COMPOST DEMONSTRATION SITE, located in the Gove Community Garden (NW corner of 13th Ave. and Colorado Blvd). Street parking is available along Harrison St., one block west of Colorado Blvd.
