Overview

The Denver Police Department Volunteers in Police Service unit is designed to have police officers and community volunteers working together to adequately address the administrative, community policing, and time demand issues facing the Police Department.

The VIPS unit seeks first-rate volunteers to take on tasks in partnership with the men and women of the Denver Police Department serving the citizens of the Denver Metropolitan area. We seek to provide volunteers with rewarding and challenging positions, which enhances the capacity of the Police Department to make Denver a better and safer city.

Mission Statement

The Volunteers In Police Service Program is committed to developing a spirit of cooperation and partnership within the community to enhance the Denver Police Department’s ability to serve the city of Denver.

Message from the Chief of Police

Thank you for your interest in applying to be a Denver Police Volunteer! Our volunteers are vital to the Department and contribute in significant and meaningful ways to our success. As Chief of the Denver Police Department (DPD), it is my belief that service to others makes Denver a world class city and thanks to people like you, who give of themselves to help others, our community and department will continue to prosper.

In the words of Elizabeth Andrew, “Volunteers don’t necessarily have the time, they just have the heart.” Please know that I, along with the members of DPD, strongly value our Volunteer in Police Services Program and know the service you provide is invaluable.

Again, thank you for considering being a part of something that has a direct and positive impact, not just on the community we serve, but also on yourself.

Sincerely,

Paul M. Pazen
Chief of Police

NONCRIMINAL JUSTICE APPLICANT PRIVACY STATEMENT

As an applicant who is the subject of a national fingerprint-based criminal history record check for a non-criminal justice purpose you have certain rights which are discussed below.

Your fingerprints will be used to check the criminal history records of the State of Colorado and the FBI and that those records will be used solely for the purpose requested and may not be disseminated outside the receiving department, related agency or other authorized entity.

If you have a criminal history record, the officials making a determination of your suitability for the job, license, or other benefit must provide you the opportunity to complete or challenge the accuracy of the information in the record.

• Procedures for obtaining a change, correction, or updating of your criminal history record are set forth at Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Section 16.34.

• If you have a criminal history record, you should be afforded a reasonable amount of time to correct or complete the record, or decline to do so, before being denied the job, license, or other benefit based on information in the criminal history record.

The fingerprints and information reported from this request may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may also be disclosed by the FBI without your consent as permitted by the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a(h)). Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to appropriate governmental authorities responsible for civil or criminal law enforcement, counterintelligence, national security or public safety matters to which the information may be relevant; to State and local governmental agencies and nongovernmental entities or application processing as authorized by Federal and State legislation, executive order, or regulation, including employment, security, licensing, and adoption checks. The City and County of Denver may only release arrest records for arrests made by the Denver Police Department. All other records must be obtained from the Colorado Bureau of Investigation or the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

If agency policy does not permit it to provide you a copy of the record, you may obtain a copy of the record by submitting fingerprints and a fee to the FBI. Information regarding this process may be obtained at http://www.fbi.gov/about-us/cjis/background-checks. If you decide to challenge the accuracy or completeness of your FBI criminal history record, you should send your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information to the FBI. Alternatively, you may send your challenge directly to the FBI at the same website address as provided above. The FBI will then forward your challenge to the agency that contributed the questioned information and request the agency to verify or correct the challenged entry. Upon receipt of an official communication from that agency, the FBI will make any necessary changes/corrections to your record in accordance with the information supplied by that agency. (See 28 CFR 16.30-16.34)

If a change, correction or update needs to be made to a Colorado criminal history record, that process information is available on the Colorado Bureau of Investigation website. https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/cbi/identity-theft-and-mis-identification

Your signature below acknowledges this agency has informed you of your privacy rights for fingerprint-based background checks used by the agency for non-criminal justice purposes.
