

YEAR IN REVIEW

In 2025, Denver's expanded DDDA began accepting applications for major projects that will redefine the downtown experience and attract new residents, businesses, and visitors. The pilot year of the DDDA has been highly successful. In its first year alone, the DDDA:

COMPLETED 4 AWARD CYCLES IN ITS PILOT YEAR

doubling initial expectations, supporting a range of investment areas, including:

$68M

in redevelopment opportunities

$46M

in new housing

$42M

in parks & public spaces

$6.1M

in business support

$3.8M

in downtown safety

AWARDED $166 MILLION

delivering on its promise of awarding over $160 million in investments to downtown in its first year of funding

SELECTED 13 PROJECTS THAT WILL CREATE:

10

New & expanded businesses

An expanded downtown police unit & additional resources and outreach

2

Reimagined city parks

Redevelopment opportunities for Denver Pavilions & adjacent surface parking lots

414

New units of housing, including affordable housing

DIVERSIFIED ITS BOARD

by adding 2 new members- Mary Nguyen and Patty Salazar- to bring new ideas and fresh perspective

RECEIVED A 'DOWNTOWN EXCELLENCE AWARD'

from Downtown Colorado Inc. for its role in shaping the DDDA's guiding document, the Plan of Development

IN 2026, THE DDDA WILL:

- Streamline operations by applying lessons learned
- Focus on implementing awarded projects
- Continue awarding projects across a range of investment areas
- Open applications for 2 expiring board seats
