Assessment Hearing Officer - CL2398
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues recommendations regarding matters brought by citizens who are contesting property assessments on behalf of the County Board of Equalization.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Assessment Hearings Officer conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues binding decisions about matters brought by agency employees or by individuals contesting charges or policy for municipal services for the County Board of Equalization. This class is distinguished from the Hearing Officer, which conducts hearings, evaluates evidence, and issues binding decisions that contest matters, charges, or policy for municipal services brought by agency employees or by individuals.

Essential Duties

Presides over the full range of administrative hearings to settle property valuation and/or classification disputes.

Evaluates relevance and importance of statutes to settle disputes when delivering decisions and orders.

Hears and evaluates testimony to determine case facts, maintains order and decorum, disposes of objections expressed, permits questioning and cross-examination of witnesses, and ensures due process.

Meets with municipal officials, appellants or their representatives to explain rights and obligations and discusses hearings rules and procedures.

Writes timely recommendations which are presented to the County Board of Equalization (Decisions are binding in Arbitration cases).

By position, submits findings and recommended decisions to an appointing authority or Board.

Presides over the full range of administrative hearings to settle property valuation and/or classification disputes.

Performs other related duties as assigned.

Employees may be re-deployed to work in other capacities in their own agencies or in other City agencies to support core functions of the City during a City-wide emergency declared by the Mayor.

Any one position may not include all of the duties listed. However, the allocation of positions will be determined by the amount of time spent in performing the essential duties listed above.
