

Denver's #SkipTheStuff Program

(Chapter 2, Article XIX of the Denver Revised Municipal Code)

REMEMBER

Only provide single-use service ware and single-use condiments upon request.

ASK

What single-use service ware and single-use condiments they need and how much.

THANK YOU

For meeting the requirements of the Skip the Stuff Program!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What items are considered single-use condiments?

Single-use condiment means a single-serving packet, such as:

- Sauces (ketchup, relish, mayo, mustard, soy sauce, salad dressing, hot sauce)
- Seasonings (salt, pepper, parmesan cheese, red pepper flakes)
- Spreads (cream cheese, jelly, butter)

What items are considered single-use service ware?

Single-use service ware are all items that are designed to be used once and then discarded. This includes:

- chopsticks
- splash and cocktail sticks
- condiment cups and packets
- straws and stirrers
- napkins
- utensils

Does the program apply to third-party delivery services?

Yes. However, without being asked, they can still provide cup lids, spill plugs, and trays that are used to prevent spills and deliver orders safely.

Can I offer customers single-use items?

Yes, but please be specific and do not offer all items at once. For example, "Do you need a fork or ketchup packet with your meal?"
