

Office of Human Resources
Fiscal Administrator I - CV2310
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Performs specific fiscal activities or projects within a specialized functional area with divisional impacts, which requires a thorough foundation in the principles and practices of the functional area in order to maintain and improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the functional area, and provides supportive, interpretive, and advisory information to higher level administrators, managers, and stakeholders.

Distinguishing Characteristics

Administrator Definitions

Administrators are individual contributors, internal consultants, and technical experts within a specialized functional area of the organization and provide administrative and strategic direction to department and agency leaders.

Administrators solve complex business issues, design systems, establish policies and procedures, and implementing guidelines, rules, and regulations that are critical and directly impact the ongoing operations of a functional area.

Administrators may perform supervision or lead work of support positions within the functional area; however, these duties are not the primary focus of administration.

A functional area is a core component or major operational area within a business enterprise, such as accounting, finance, human resources, information technology, legal services, and operations.

Administrator Levels

The Administrator I focuses on division-level responsibilities and may have some department/agency-wide responsibilities within a defined scope. This classification typically reports to a manager or higher-level position within management.

The Administrator II focuses on department/agency-wide responsibilities and may have some citywide responsibilities within a defined scope. This classification typically reports to a director or higher-level positions within management.

The Administrator III focuses on citywide responsibilities or department/agency-wide responsibilities with citywide impacts or implications. Citywide impact is defined as directing and having direct oversight of activities within external departments and agencies within the city, which is not external to the city. This classification typically reports to an executive-level position or an appointing authority.

Essential Duties

Manages specific fiscal activities and projects within accounting, auditing, budgeting, or finance, participates in the development of short-term and long-range planning initiatives for the functional area, and serves as a liaison with other departmental officials, community groups, and other units. Specific fiscal functional areas may include: accounting, budgeting, and finance oversight, operational monitoring, evaluation, and decision making, compliance and fiscal reporting, and property, tax, or asset valuation.

Acts as a technical expert in a functional area within accounting, auditing, budgeting, or finance, provides consultative and technical guidance to managers, officials, and stakeholders, and manages fiscal matters or issues with regard to decision making.

Develops and implements policies and procedures that impact business operations and administrative activities at the division level, provides advice and interpretative information pertaining to current practices, evaluates business processes and impacts of change, and makes recommendations for modifications to functional area.

Conducts studies and research projects within the scope of the functional area, prepares comprehensive reports that reflect findings and conclusions, and recommends solutions in areas that require attention or change, and implements approved recommendations.

Evaluates the overall effectiveness of the functional area, ensures compliance with applicable laws, regulations, applicable standards, and policies, and assists in establishing processes and controls to ensure compliance.

By position, develops and administers contracts, which includes drafting RFPs for professional and services contracts, forming committees for evaluation and selection of applications, monitors expenditures, evaluates performance, and ensures contract compliance.

By position, develops and implements a division budget and approves expenditures.

By position, performs some or all of the elements of supervision or lead work including work planning, instruction, and review, handling grievances and disciplinary actions, hiring and dismissing employees, and evaluating employee performance.

Performs other related duties as assigned.

Employees may be re-deployed to work in other capacities in their own agencies or in other City agencies to support core functions of the City during a City-wide emergency declared by the Mayor.

Any one position may not include all of the duties listed. However, the allocation of positions will be determined by the amount of time spent in performing the essential duties listed above.
