Essential Duties

Compliance Officer Essential Duties:

Responsible for compliance in the pre-award process, the Compliance Officer-Staff assists the more experienced Compliance Officer-Associate in the post-award compliance process to ensure that successful bidders and proposers are complying with all program requirements, including meeting participation goals for Minority and Woman-Owned Businesses.

Prepares and delivers presentations on Minority and Woman-Owned Business Enterprise (M/WBE), Small Business Enterprise (SBE), Emerging Business Enterprise (EBE), Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) and Airport Concessions Business Enterprise (ACDBE) program requirements at pre-bid, pre-proposal meetings and bid openings.

Responds to questions from potential bidders (architects, engineers, construction company senior executives, sub-contractors, goods and services vendors) at meetings or, through each project's Contract Administrator, after meetings.

Reviews bid/proposal documents for construction, professional design, and goods and services contracts to ensure compliance with solicitation requirements and with applicable local ordinances, as well as with federal laws and regulations that apply to DBE and ACDBE programs.

The review includes the following:

1. Determining whether bid documents and reconsideration requests are responsive or non-responsive to the requirements of the bid documents and of the M/WBE, SBE, EBE, DBE and ACDBE programs, as applicable. (A non-responsive determination means that a construction/design company or a goods/services vendor will not qualify to be selected for a project/contract).
2. In consultation with management, determining if a Good Faith Effort submission is sufficient to meet the requirements as outlined in the local ordinances that apply to the M/WBE program and federal laws and regulations that apply to the DBE and ACDBE programs and
3. Verifying that each sub requested on the project has the correct certification and appropriate North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) code in B2G in accordance with the scope of work listed on the project.

4. Analyzing Letters of Intent (LOIs), bid tabulations, joint venture agreements to determine if they meet requirements of RFPs, bid documents and applicable laws and regulations.

Writes formal letters to non-responsive contractors referencing specific federal regulations or local ordinance (49 CFR Part 23 and/or 26 and City and County of Denver Ordinances 85 and/or 86).

Receives training to assist Compliance Officers in the post-award compliance process.

Certification Officer Essential Duties:

Assists the Certification Officer-Associate by participating in joint site visits, interviewing M/WBE personnel, participating in the analysis of certification applications, including tax documents and balance sheets, and making recommendations on whether a firm meets all requirements for certification.

Uploads documents into B2G as support to decisions made and to maintain an audit trail.

Participates as a member on the Certification Committee.

Essential duties for both Certification and Compliance Officers

Keeps an organized schedule of tasks and duties to be performed.

Works on outreach to certified firms to identify issues and areas of potential assistance by DSBO.

Attends outreach events in the community, other city agencies, and/other governmental agencies.

Performs other related duties as assigned.

Employees may be re-deployed to work in other capacities in their own agencies or in other City agencies to support core functions of the City during a City-wide emergency declared by the Mayor.

Any one position may not include all of the duties listed. However, the allocation of positions will be determined by the amount of time spent in performing the essential duties listed above.
