Building and Grounds Supervisor - CJ2808
THIS IS A PUBLIC DOCUMENT

General Statement of Duties

Performs first-line supervisory work over laborers and oversees work in-progress for quality, effectiveness, and efficiency, and resolves operational issues.

Distinguishing Characteristics

The Building and Grounds Supervisor class was created for the Department of General Services but may be used by other agencies. This class is distinguished from the Operations Supervisor who supervises unskilled and semi-skilled laborers, employees engaged in equipment operation such as Equipment Operator I, Equipment Operator II, or Equipment Operator III, and may supervise other supervisors. Additionally, the Operations Supervisor is responsible for work that includes the construction, maintenance, and repair of City facilities, infrastructure, parks, and urban forests, and in the collection and disposal of solid waste.

The Building and Grounds Supervisor is also distinguished from a Crew Lead that is a working supervisor and supervises unskilled and semi-skilled laborers and employees engaged in equipment operation. Additionally, a Crew Lead is responsible for work that includes construction, repair, and maintenance of city streets, sewer and storm drains, golf courses, parks, airport structures, traffic devices, and other City facilities, infrastructure, and equipment.
